ABOUT US

Newmarket is a town with horseracing at its heart. Recognised globally as the sport's headquarters, for more than 350 years, today the town is home to some 2500 horses-in-training and boasts world-class equine facilities and training grounds.

Having two racecourses in a single town, The Rowley Mile and The July Course, makes Newmarket unique. Both racecourses stage an unparalleled programme of quality sport, pulsating music nights and first-class conference and events facilities.

And, being a Jockey Club racecourse, we take our food and hospitality seriously. Our team pride themselves on offering our guests mouth-watering dining and a first class service coupled with world class sport at the Home of Horseracing.

THE ROWLEY MILE

Home to Newmarket's spring and autumn racing, The Rowley Mile each year hosts the esteemed QIPCO Guineas Festival. World class horses from across the continent travel to compete in the first two classic races of the year, the 1000 & 2000 Guineas, in front of a packed grandstand.

Raceday hospitality is in great demand at The Rowley Mile, offering a choice of dining packages with unparalleled views of the racing action. Whether you're looking for the buzz of our Champions Gallery restaurant or the intimate exclusivity of an executive box, our team will create the perfect package for you.

The versatile Rowley Mile also offers modern conference and events facilities, hosting a variety of dinners, meetings, exhibitions and public events.

CHAMPIONS GALLERY

Situated in the heart of the Millennium Grandstand, the award-winning Champions Gallery restaurant boasts a panoramic view of the racetrack. From your elevated position you're perfectly placed to soak up the raceday atmosphere while enjoying fantastic dining, exceptional service and first class racing action.

The tiered seating offers a great view of the historic surrounding heathland, ideal for seating parties from 2 to 12 guests for special occasions with family and friends, landmark anniversaries or corporate entertainment.

"We had a very splendid day on Saturday. We were very happy with our table for two in a small shared pavilion in the usual perfect setting. Our hostess and staff were all extremely helpful and accommodating. The food was delightful and we also did well on the horses. All in all we agreed that it was certainly one of, if not the best days racing with hospitality that we have ever had. We shall be booking up yet again for next season"

“Thank you personally for your very attentive and professional role at the event. This made us feel from the start that we were at a premier event: worth the time and money! The champagne tasting and food selection was excellent. As was the champagne ambassador and the racing tipster. The sequence of the day was just right; not too much entertainment but enough structure to make time flow”
