

TAKE NOTE

INJUNCTION AGAINST THE UNLAWFUL BUYING AND SELLING OF TICKETS

On 24 October 2018 Mr Justice Nugee of the High Court granted an injunction to the owners of the Racecourse prohibiting ticket touting at the Racecourse. For the avoidance of doubt that includes the buying and selling of tickets by touts and the selling of tickets to touts by any person, contrary to the Racecourse's terms and conditions. It also includes anyone assisting in that activity.

A breach of the injunction is a contempt of court and is punishable by imprisonment, a fine and/or the seizure of assets.
