  - iii. JCR shall, in its absolute discretion, determine the refund due under clause 3 (c) (ii) taking into account the relative value of the race days or part of the conference or event which has been cancelled or abandoned against the entire conference or event or, as applicable, all the race days available within the Long Term Contract and your reasonable share of any unavoidable costs that JCR has to pay in connection with the cancelled or abandoned event.
- d. JCR's right to amend JCR Contracts.

  - ii. To the extent that any such variation shall cause an increase in the fees or charges payable under your JCR Contract (for example if a larger space is required to safely operate the event in accordance with the Legal Requirements) JCR will write to you to confirm this change ("Change Notice"). You may end this Agreement and request a refund of any fee or charges already paid by providing notice in writing to JCR within 7 days of the date of such Change Notice or if earlier by at least 5 days before the applicable event.

- iii) where your JCR Contract is a Long Term Contract, to vary that Long Term Contract by the removal of a day(s) and receive a partial refund which will be calculated by JCR, in its absolute discretion, taking into account the relative value of the race day or part of the conference or event which has been removed against the entire conference or event or, as applicable, all the race days available within the Long Term Contract; or
  - iv) instead of requesting a refund, move your booking to a later date or, where you are a party to a Long Term Contract, to vary that contract by replacing the day on which the Critical Attendee(s) cannot attend with an equivalent date in the future selected by JCR.
- iii. JCR may request you to provide further evidence of any applicable Valid Reason and reserves the right to reject any election made under this clause 3 (e) if JCR believes, acting reasonably, that insufficient evidence of a Valid Reason has been provided.
