WELFARE & COVID-19

Is there a risk in attending an event?

Covid-19, often referred to as coronavirus, is an infectious disease that can result in serious and potentially fatal illness. There is a risk of the transmission of Covid-19 in any environment where people come together. This risk increases in enclosed spaces and with increased numbers of people. The World Health Organisation (WHO) has advised that the elderly and those with underlying medical conditions are more vulnerable. Further information can be found on the WHO's website: https://www.who.int/health-topics/coronavirus#tab=tab_1,

Whilst Live Nation will be adopting enhanced safety measures to help attendees stay safe, the risk cannot be completely eliminated. Upon attending an event, you assume all risk associated with Covid-19 (unless in any way caused by the negligence of Live Nation). You will also be expected to:

- abide by all government guidance aimed at preventing the transmission of the virus (details of which can be accessed via the following link <https://www.gov.uk/coronavirus> and <https://www.gov.scot/coronavirus-covid-19/> for shows taking place in Scotland); and
- follow all directions provided by Live Nation and its Event staff and security stewards.

You must not attend an event if you believe that you may have been infected by Covid-19.

Failure to comply with these measures shall entitle Live Nation to eject you from the event.

Please contact Live Nation (<https://help.livenation.co.uk/hc/en-gb/requests/new>) for more information on the safeguards they will be implementing.

All events are all subject to the latest Government guidance rules to manage the transmission of Covid-19. All customers and staff are expected to adhere to the guidance and follow the code of conduct which will be in the pre event information pack sent 3-7 days before the event.

The following individuals MUST NOT ATTEND the event;

- Any individual displaying the symptoms of Covid-19 (New persistent cough, High temperature, Loss of taste or smell)
- Any individual who is self-isolating either due to displaying symptoms as above for 7 days, or any member of their household who is self-isolating for 14 days.
- Any individual who has been instructed by the relevant contact tracing authority to isolate.

We ADVISE the following individuals NOT TO ATTEND the event;

- Any individual who has been informed that they are extremely clinically vulnerable and that they should be shielding.
- Individuals who live in the same household as an individual who is extremely clinically vulnerable.

WHAT HAPPENS IF THE WEATHER IS POOR?

Concerts are only ever cancelled due to the weather if the conditions become dangerous. However, you cannot bring an umbrella, so please dress appropriately. Car engines must be switched off during the performance therefore heating and air-conditioning may not be effective.

WHAT IF I NEED TO LEAVE DURING THE PERFORMANCE?

Vehicles must remain stationary in the venue until the performance has ended and stewards have given drivers the signal to start engines and exit. If, however there is an emergency please put your hazard lights on and a member of security will help you.

CAN I BRING MY PET(S)?
