ABOUT THE JOCKEY CLUB

The Jockey Club was founded in 1750 by a group of people brought together by a shared passion for horseracing.

They were some of the most influential figures in the country.

Initially meeting in London at the Star and Garter in Pall Mall and also in St. James' Street and Hyde Park,

The Club soon relocated to Newmarket.

More than 260 years on, today, The Jockey Club is the largest commercial group in British horseracing, owning 15 leading UK racecourses, including Wincanton. Acting for the good of British racing, it reinvests every penny of profit back into the sport which millions of people enjoy every year.

The Jockey Club has long been known for the highest standards of attention to detail.

These values have long attracted discerning racegoers, who know that true excellence always has and always will matter.
