

Rewards4Racing Terms & Conditions

Following an advance ticket purchase either online or by phone with any of The Jockey Club's 15 racecourses, customers will automatically be registered with (and have the credit / debit card which they used for the purchase linked to) our unique rewards programme, Rewards4Racing and will receive Rewards4Racing points for that purchase.

The Rewards4Racing programme is free to join and be part of and customers can collect valuable points when they make purchases with The Jockey Club, when betting online with Rewards4Racing's betting partners, subscribing to racing partners such as the Racing Post and Racing UK and when shopping online with thousands of high street retailers. These valuable points will then be converted into cash to be spent online or by phone with any of The Jockey Club's 15 racecourses, saving you ££'s off your next purchase with us.

Once you have purchased from The Jockey Club, look out for your Rewards4Racing welcome email and be sure to activate your account! By joining Rewards4Racing, you will be notified of exclusive offers and account updates via email.
