Market Rasen

RACECOURSE

Market Rasen Racecourse, which is part of The Jockey Club, stages over 20 jump racing fixtures each year and is a leading conference and events centre in the East Midlands.

The venue is one of the friendliest places in the country to watch jump racing, with events held throughout the year. The beautiful track, in a lovely rural setting where it has been since 1924, is best known as a premier summer jumping racecourse.

FEATURE DAYS

Hospitality Packages

Raceday hospitality at Market Rasen Racecourse offers a spectacular way to entertain clients, colleagues, friends, and family, combining the thrill of racing with unforgettable dining experiences.

Whether you're enjoying a laid-back buffet or indulging in a refined, multi-course formal lunch, our hospitality packages are designed to suit every occasion. From celebrating a milestone birthday or anniversary to hosting an important client, you'll be treated to exceptional service, gourmet food, and prime racecourse views. Every detail is carefully curated to ensure your day is seamless and memorable, leaving you free to relax and soak in the excitement of the races.

Please note that minimum numbers apply for private hospitality bookings, and not all experiences are available at every race meeting.

Jockey Club Catering is a joint venture between The Jockey Club, the leading commercial group in British Horse Racing and Compass Group UK & Ireland. Established in 2009, this partnership focuses on delivering high-quality catering services across all 15 racecourses operated by The Jockey Club.

Since 2009, Jockey Club Catering have been serving millions of guests at some of the most iconic Jockey Club venues in the UK including major racing festivals such as The Cheltenham Festival, Randox Grand National Festival and Betfred Derby Festival, bringing unparalleled culinary expertise to each event.
